Access Information

At Adelaide Festival, we believe everyone has the right to have access to quality arts and entertainment.

Please check event pages in the guide or on the website for access information and session times. We are offering online access bookings this year, read on for booking instructions. You are still able to book over the phone as well as via email. When booking your ticket over the phone or via email please inform the operator of any access requirements.

Our AF25 program is also available in the following alternative formats:

- Online at adelaidefestival.com.au

The website has an Accessibility Userway plugin, you will find the icon in the bottom left corner of your screen.

This enables the website to be customised to suit individual needs and includes font enlargement capabilities, read aloud and options to adjust contrast, saturation, cursor size, fonts, spacing and page views.

- Text Only – linked here
- Audio versions, available on request
- We are in the process of adding detailed information and maps to our venue pages. You can access these in the sidebar of event pages.

Booking Tickets

ONLINE

We are so excited to be able to offer online access bookings for the first time in 2024 and again in 2025. This mode of sale offers wheelchair seats/platforms, Companion Card, Audio Described and Auslan Interpreted prices.

Use this link to automatically apply the 'ACCESS' code to your cart.

Once you select your show, performance date and time, you will see a seat map. Use the + and - symbols in the bottom right corner to zoom. There are small symbols above the seat icon that demonstrate the seat type. You can also see the written price types when you click the individual seat. The pre-cart message will confirm the seat type you have chosen.

If you are booking a wheelchair seat or space, or a companion card ticket, you will receive a courtesy call from a member of our Customer Experience team to make sure we pass on accurate information to the venue.

Open House

From world-class theatre to thrilling dance, incredible music and unmissable opera, Adelaide Festival is committed to being equitable and inclusive. We believe that engaging with the arts can have a deep and meaningful impact on people's lives.

Our Open House program supports individuals and charitable organisations to experience the arts at Adelaide Festival and aims to make these experiences more accessible to everyone. The program is made possible with the generous support of The Balnaves Foundation.

Tix For Next To Nix

Adelaide Festival is offering limited tickets across a selection of Festival events at just $5 each to not-for-profit organisations, charities, and patrons who have a current Pension Card or Health Care Card. (Please note: the Commonwealth Senior Health and Seniors cards are ineligible).

For more information or to register interest in Tix For Next To Nix, please visit adelaidefestival.com.au/open-house.

You can apply on the Open House page of our website.

Applications will remain open until ticket allocation is exhausted. After you apply, a representative of our program partner, GOGO Events, will get in touch within 10 business days to confirm your eligibility, discuss any accessibility requirements, and guide you through the next steps to purchase your tickets.

Any questions? Please email them to admin@gogoevents.com.au

Pay What You Can

Are you a low-income earner? If you have a current Health Care Card, Pension Card or full-time student card, you can access Pay What You Can tickets to a selection of Adelaide Festival shows.
