Adelaide Writers' Week holds its main program of events at the Pioneer Women's Memorial Garden across the East Stage, West Stage and North Stage. Main stage sessions are free and run for approximately one hour, including time for questions. Most sessions are followed by a book signing.

Young Readers' Day events are held in the Torrens Tent and on the main stages (more information on page 13). Special events are ticketed and held in Adelaide Town Hall and Bonython Hall, as indicated.

This schedule is correct at the time of print but changes will occur. For the updated schedule, please see the signage on-site or check the online schedule and schedule changes page at
